Norwich, Wednesday, Sept. 5, 1917.

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

The middle Atlantic disturbance early noted Monday passed to the southward near the island of Bermuda Tuesday, moving northeast with considerable intensity.

High pressure continues over the eastern half of the country and it is rising rapidly in the extreme north-west.

There were also local showers in the middle Atlantic valley, the gulf and south Atlantic states. Elsewhere the weather was fair. Generally tempera- tures have changed but little, with a tendency toward lower readings over the eastern half of the country.

In the Atlantic states the weather will be fair Wednesday and Thursday, with rising temperatures, and it also will be warmer Thursday in the upper Ohio valley and the lower lake region.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be moderate north winds and fair weather. In the middle Atlantic, moderate and northeasterly and fair weather.

Forecast.
Southern New England: Fair Wed- nesday; Thursday fair, slightly warmer in interior.
New England: Fair Wednesday and Thursday; warmer Thursday in Vermont.

Eastern New York: Fair, continued cool Wednesday; Thursday fair, some- what warmer in interior.

GREENEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. William Sharkey Cele- brated Tenth Wedding Anniversary— Mrs. Mary Carroll Struck by Auto— Personal.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wil- liam Sharkey of 298 Central avenue celebrated their tenth anniversary of their marriage at the home of Mrs. Sharkey. There were a large number of guests present from New London, Norwich and Mansfield. After an enjoyable evening the party broke up at a late hour, all wishing the couple many more happy anniversaries.

Struck by Auto.
Mrs. Mary Carroll was recently se- verely injured when she was struck by an automobile as she was alighting from a trolley on Central avenue. The conductor did not notice her signal for the stop at Prospect street until the car was passing Hickory street. The car came to a stop about twenty-five feet beyond the Hickory Street stop. As Mrs. Carroll came around the back of the car she was knocked down by the automobile which passed over her feet and wheels. The driver said that when the car passed Hickory street he supposed that there was no one getting off. Mrs. Carroll was attended by Dr. Brophy and is resting comfortably.

John C. Denovan Heard From.
Mr. and Mrs. John Denovan of North Main street have received word that their son, John C. Denovan, is in the U. S. Engineering corps. He has the good wishes of the many local people with whom he was acquainted in his new career.

Regular Masses.
There will be the usual two monthly masses Friday morning in St. Mary's church for the community of the Sacred Heart league. There will be the usual evening devotions.

Personal and Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. John Manning of Fourth street returned Monday evening after spending the holiday with relatives in Providence.

Miss Katherine Duncan and Miss Agnes Bradley have returned after spending Labor day with Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan of New Haven.

60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.
Illness Prevented Celebration in Hon- or of Franklin Couple.

September first was the sixtieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Smith of Franklin, but on account of the illness of Mrs. Smith no celebration was held.

Mr. Smith's grandfather, Thomas Smith, lived to be 91 and 93 years of age. His grandfather was the young- est of ten children. Nine were boys. Her husband and father and nine nephews were in the Revolutionary war.

Prentice P. Smith, father of W. C. Smith was in the War of 1812, and lived to be 86 years of age. Mr. Smith's mother, Marie Evans, died at the age of 87. They had ten children, seven boys and three girls. Four of the boys celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The grandfather and grandmother lived together 66 years and his father and mother 66 years.

The ages of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith are 82 and 83.

One brother, Ezra, is 80 years of age and resides in California. Orin Smith lived with his wife 65 years and John Smith 60 years, brothers of W. C. Smith.

Mrs. Smith belongs to the Delme family of Rhode Island. Her grand- father, Jonathan Helme was a com- missioned officer in the Revolution- ary war.
